

TRUE

FALSE

All parents have hopes and dreams and for their children

1

When kids come to school, they bring their family, culture, religion and language with them

2

All families can help their children learn

3

Both families and schools contribute to the education of child

4

It is the school that decides whether parents engage or not

5

All families know things about their children that can help their children
learn best

6

The teacher is the only expert when it comes to educating children

7

Parents can't help deliver the curriculum

8

Only parents who have a lot of money get involved with their children's school

9

Good relationships between the school and parents are one key to successful partnerships

10