Thank You to Our Nation's Teachers

MEDIA RELEASE

The Australian Council of State School Organisations, today, would like to formally recognise and thank the teachers across Australia in our nation's fabulous and fully inclusive Public Schools.

International Teachers' Day on the 25th of October is an opportunity to celebrate the work of our teachers.

"Every day, we as parents entrust our children to the care of their teachers as they journey through their school education. Teachers are a significant partner, with parents, in the development of our young people. We work together to enrich their knowledge and experiences, and we value their contribution" said Kevan Goodworth, Chair of the Australian Council of State School Organisations board.

"Teachers play a pivotal role in helping our young people to be the best they can be. As dedicated professionals their care and influence can and does have a life-long effect on those that they teach"

"We all remember that teacher that made a difference for us" he stated

It is most fitting that a day is set aside to recognise their significant contribution to our children, to our families and our society.

The Australian Council of State School Organisations would like to thank teachers for the wonderful support they give our children within the public education system.
